OLD PEOPLE GUESTS OF RELIEF SOCIETY

MESA, Nov. 24.—More than 40 old folk of the ward district were entertained by the Relief Society of the Fourth ward at the chapel west of town one day the early part of this week. An entertaining program was rendered, a social period was enjoyed and there were other features to make the guests feel at home and to enjoy the occasion to the utmost.

The following program was given:
Prayer.....Flavos Green
Song, "Oh Ye Mountains High."
Address of welcome.....Mary Bond
Song of welcome (composed by M. Bond)
Reading.....Mabel Davis
Reading.....Virginia Ellis
Music.....Primary Orchestra
Reading.....Mina Kleinman
Duet, "Silver Threads Among the Gold."
Chorus.....Primary Children
Music.....Primary Children
Singing, "Come Let Us Anew."
Prayer.....Benjamin Johnson
During an intermission in the program luncheon was served to the more than 75 present. Musical selections were rendered by Miss Pomeroy's orchestra class. Many dainty lunches were also sent out the same day to the sick in the ward district.

Of particular interest to the old folks in attendance was the presence of Mrs. Hebert, aged 92, and Mrs. Baker, who has passed her 91st birthday. Many others of advanced age were present to enjoy the program and to renew friendship with their fellow pioneers of the early days in the Mesa district.

Entertainers for visitors
Mrs. Paul Baxter Beville pleasantly entertained her home on South Hill street Wednesday evening for Miss Baker, sister of Mrs. Palmer, and Miss Jennie Mae Adams, who have been visiting in Mesa for several months. Three tables were occupied for bridge during the evening, after which dainty refreshments were served. Miss Adams, sister of Mrs. W. M. Beach, with whom she has been visiting, departed Thursday for Dodge City, Kan., where she has accepted an important position on the staff of the high school faculty.

Chautauque Plans Under Way
Miss Pearl Fishback, who has been in Mesa since the first of the week in the interests of the Elliston-White Chautauque company, left Thursday for Douglas, Directors of the Mesa Commercial club and other citizens of the town were interested during her stay in an engagement of the chautauque for a week early in May of next year, and those behind the movement confidently hope to have the contract for the engagement assured by the first of the year.

Literary Department to Meet
The literary department of the Woman's club of Mesa will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon at 2:30 in the guild hall. The lives and writings of the French authors, Guy de Maupassant, Francis Coppee and Balzac will be studied at the meeting.

Thanksgiving is Observed
Family reunions and turkey dinners and desert picnics predominated on the Thanksgiving day program in Mesa Thursday. Many parties were organized for all day outings on the

PARTY CELEBRATES DAY WITH PICNIC

TEMPE, Nov. 24.—One of the most delightful Thanksgiving affairs was the desert picnic given by a party of Tempe people. For several years this has been an annual event, the same families forming the party each year. A bountiful supply of good things to eat were taken along and an unusually pleasant day enjoyed.

Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Carr and children, C. T. Wamsley and children, Mrs. Anna Wamsley, A. B. Clark and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Lundy of Phoenix, Dr. R. L. Alexander and family, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Beon of Liberty, Miss Mina Alexander of Mesa, T. Dickinson and son, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Griffin and son and Miss Myrtle Clark of Williamson valley.

Spending Week with Parents
Miss Rose Brady, who is attending the Normal this winter, is spending the week end in Mesa with her parents.

Here to Spend Winter
Mrs. Louise Cruz arrived Wednesday morning from Chicago to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Hilt.

Entertain at Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Frankenburg entertained about thirty guests at a Thanksgiving dinner Thursday. The affair was in the form of a family reunion and was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Birchett were also hosts at a dinner party on the same day.

Have Candy Display
If you like candy drop into the Methodist basement Dec. 2 where a bazaar is being held. Mrs. Ostrander and Mrs. Beck will have a display of delicious homemade candy which they think will be appreciated by anyone who buys it.

Here from Flagstaff
H. H. Longfellow is here from Flagstaff visiting friends over the weekend.

Dinner Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Thompson of Phoenix were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Thompson's sister, Mrs. A. L. Kuntz, Thursday.

Dance at Midway
The regular weekly dance will be given at the Midway hall Friday night. A lively orchestra will furnish the music.

Return from Colorado
Fred Joyce has returned from a short business trip to Leadville, Colo.

Dinner Given in Honor of Newlyweds
The home of Mrs. Hattie Cummins was the scene of a pretty dinner party Thursday given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cummings, who were married in Phoenix last Thursday.

Buy Zimmerman Home
C. G. Jones has bought the attractive cottage opposite the crematorium which was formerly owned by Mr. Zimmerman, from Dr. Young. Dr. Young owns a farm in the Kyrene district and moved his family there some time ago. Mr. Jones expects to either rent or sell his newly purchased place.

REMOVING FRUIT STAINS
If the fruit stains are fresh their removal is not so difficult a problem. With the fabric held taut over a bowl, pour boiling water through the stain. If the water is poured from a height it will be more effective, for the force aids in removal.
